Growth comparison between patients with rapidly progressing MPS VI and unaffected age-adjusted peers

Adapted From Quartel, JIMD Rep, 2015.

*For the purpose of this data set, patients with uGAG levels of >200 μg/mg creatinine are considered to have rapidly progressing MPS VI.

*For the purpose of this data set, patients with uGAG levels of ≤200 μg/mg creatinine are considered to have slowly progressing MPS VI.