

Time to diagnosis in a series of patients with slowly progressing MPS VI⁴

Age at first symptom onset
(median, n=4)

Age at diagnosis
(median, n=4)

In a small group of patients with MPS VI, median delay in diagnosis was found to be 17.5 years. Common among these patients was the lack of classic dysostosis multiplex.